

BATTLE: Courtney

£11m a Hole lot to lose

ROCK star Courtney Love has revealed how she turned to drugs because her fortune disappeared.

The 42-year-old widow of Nirvana legend Kurt Cobain - who owns the rights to his music - lost £11million, which she claims was stolen by aides. She admitted it made her so miserable she "got a habit", adding: "It was just bad. And drugs are cheap. I didn't blow the money on drugs. Drugs are relatively cheap when you talk about millions of dollars."

The ex-Hole frontwoman is waiting for the results of an FBI probe into what happened to her cash.

She added: "Other people are watching my money now. I'm pretty much not allowed to touch it."

A DODGY DRIVER

TERENCE Burke, 50, of Middleton, Manchester, has been jailed after he dodged four speeding tickets by claiming a pal was driving.

Dear Dad, I haven't been blown up yet

TRAGIC SQUADDIE'S LAST LETTER

by JOHN MAHONEY
A YOUNG soldier killed in Iraq had just sent a letter home saying: "I haven't been blown up yet."

Brave Jamie Hancock, 19, was only two weeks into a six-month tour of duty.

And his letter home also revealed he was heading to a base camp in Basra later that day - which "gets attacked most nights and mortared a lot".

Busy

The kingsman in the Duke of Lancaster Regiment, pictured left, died two days ago on sentry patrol.

It was 10 days earlier that he sent his poignant letter home to dad Eddie, 60, and stepmum Rose in Wigan, Lancs.

It read: "Just writing to let you know I am fine, not been blown up yet!!!" "Getting used to the weather - it is hot - and it's only winter."

"Hope you are okay, time is moving pretty fast, I am always busy. Hope you are getting a tan back in England, ha ha. The place where I am going gets attacked most nights and mortared a lot.

POIGNANT: Jamie's letter to dad Eddie, right

"Write back so I know how you are. Lots of love Jamie. XX"

Last night his dad Eddie slammed conditions for British troops in Iraq and demanded immediate withdrawal. He said: "The politicians in this country are the reason my son is dead."

"In his wallet was a picture of the Queen. It shows his true character. "It is about time Tony Blair pulled British troops out of Iraq."

Shoppers go wild as top designers flog off catwalk bargains

TRENCHCOAT WARFARE

by JAMES WICKHAM
FASHION fans mobbed the shops yesterday when word got out that a top label was flogging catwalk collections at rock-bottom prices.

Crowds of frantic women stormed in to grab the gear by Viktor and Rolf.

And in amazing scenes, shoppers even staged a tug-of-war over a trendy trenchcoat.

Celebs

Dutch duo Viktor and Rolf are famed for dressing celebs including singers Gwen Stefani, 37, and Kylie Minogue, 38, and actress Cate Blanchett, 37. A limited number of trench-coats, skirts, dresses and even wedding dresses were up for grabs at H&M stores across the country - at prices ranging from £35 to £220 instead of the usual five-figure price tags.

Scuffles broke out as shoppers fought over the bargains. Londoner Jenny Matthews, 36, said after emerging from H&M in Bond Street: "It was mad. The crowd was so overwhelming. There was, literally, a tug-of-war over a trenchcoat."

Yesterday a spokeswoman for the high street chain admitted staff had been overwhelmed by the demand.

And just one day after they went on sale, some branches had already sold out of most of the limited-edition designs. Viktor and Rolf's bargains were up for grabs in H&M stores in London, Newcastle, Birmingham, Nottingham, Newcastle - and Stockholm in Sweden.

Viktor Horsting said: "We have been lucky and worked hard to reach the high end of fashion, while H&M is at the other, cheaper end."

"But we loved the idea of a marriage of opposites because that is what fashion should be all about."

McFly gettin' into the spirit

HERE is a McFly struggling with a shot of something strong. I think it's Tom. They were signing stuff at G-A-Y Bar's fourth birthday. I'm not printing pics of them signing women's breasts. They weren't nice breasts.

ALBUM CLASH OF THE TITANS

It's oasis versus THE BEATLES

NOW YOU DECIDE

FORGET the Britpop wars of a decade past. Noel and Liam are about to embark on the chart battle they've been hankering for their whole lives - Oasis v The Beatles.

The Burnage boys release their greatest hits collection Stop The Clocks on November 20 - the same day Love by the Fab Four hits shop shelves.

Legendary Beatles producer Sir George Martin, 80, and his son Giles, 37, have remixed some of The Scouse foursome's very finest treasures for the new collection.

The Gallaghers have made no bones about their slavish adoration of the works of John, Paul, George and Ringo and will be watching their first week sales figures particularly closely.

And let's not forget - the last high-profile chart scrap Oasis were involved in ended in their defeat.

Heroes

In 1995 Blur famously brought forward the release of their Country House single so it would be in direct competition with Oasis's Roll With It.

The Southern lads relegated Oasis to No.2. It proved a Pyrrhic victory, mind, with Blur crumbling as Damon, 38, sought refuge in numerous side projects while the Gallaghers and their gang went on to become one of the biggest bands on the planet. And now

Noel and Liam are hoping they can pull off the ultimate triumph - by beating their heroes to the top spot.

Noel once said: "The Beatles are the be-all and end-all."

"Where it starts and where it finishes."

"Everything we do is inspired by The Beatles and our ambition is to go where we want to."

Whereas Liam modestly added: "Our band is hugely gifted. We are geniuses."

"Musical history is simply Elvis Presley, The Beatles, The Sex Pistols and Oasis. That's it."

My spy tells me: "They lost out to Blur 10 years ago and are keen to avenge that defeat."

CAUGHT LIVE

SCOTT MATTHEWS Union Chapel, London

SCOTT Matthews' debut album Passing Stranger is a work of delicate beauty.

Nimble-plucked guitars ride Indian ragas while the ghost of Led Zep's more pastoral blues rock is revived for a new century.

Scott cuts a lonely, nervous-looking figure. His strumming and singing however are full of a marked confidence.

Album highlights like Dream Song and Elusive are mesmeric in their intensity with extravagant axe-work complementing his singular singing style admirably. I say singing, it's more of a groan. A plaintive heart-broken howl at the moon. Splendid.

CARL STROUD

Jen's real Keane

UNLIKELY hook-up of the month award must go to Jenson Button and the Keane boys.

The cheery racing driver, 26, became matey with Tim Rice-Oxley, 30, and Tom Chaplin, 27, after last week's MTV Europe Music Awards. My man at an aftershow party I didn't go to said: "They got on like a house on fire."

He offered to give them both lessons in an F1 car.

I predict it was just pissed talk and will never happen, but the group parted having swapped numbers.

Nelly looking a good thing

NELLY Furtado's new single All Good Things is creeping up the airplay charts.

I love the melodies, even though Chris Martin's original vocals got ditched from the track for sounding too rock.

To celebrate her success, Nelly, 27, wanted to wear full bodypaint to the MTV Awards, but it got cocked up, so she only had her arms done. Now you know.

LOVED BY ALL:
Tragic little Shannon choked on a piece of sausage

ANGEL KILLED BY SCHOOL DINNER

TRIBUTES: Toys at the school gates yesterday, including one with a message from her parents, right

CHILDREN watched and wept as school dinner ladies fought in vain to save tragic Shannon Hennessey.

The six-year-old had staggered across the dining hall fighting for air after a lump of sausage stuck in her throat.

Dinner staff frantically patted the child's back to try to dislodge it and one staff member performed the Heimlich Manoeuvre.

Paramedics arrived and desperately tried to revive her but a chunk of food

■ by JERRY LAWTON

had been sucked into her lungs, meaning all bids to save her were vain.

Shannon was pronounced dead shortly after arriving at hospital.

Shaking

Her heartbroken grandad Tony Barrett said last night: "We are satisfied everything possible was done."

"Shannon was loved by everybody. My daughter is distraught at the loss of her beautiful little girl."

The tragedy happened at Redhill

Infants' School, near Shannon's home in Castleford, West Yorks.

A mum of one of the pupils said: "The children saw Shannon shaking. It has badly affected them all."

Yesterday Shannon's mum Toni Barrett, 24, left a large brown teddy bear at the school with the message: "Shannon. Our darling daughter. We miss you so much. Sleep well darling. We'll be together soon. All our love. Mummy and Daddy."

The school stayed closed as a mark of respect.

WE'LL PRUNE YOUR TELEGRAPH POLE

■ by OLIVIA MATTHEWS
A GANG of bogus tree surgeons was caught out when one of them offered to prune a telegraph pole.

The three travellers charged pensioners huge amounts of cash for small gardening jobs. But the conmen were rumbled when gang member Albert Bowers offered to prune a "poplar tree" - which was a telegraph pole. When police raided the gang's caravan they found £225,530 in cash.

Gardening conmen caught by gaffe

The court heard one victim was charged £2,750 for 45 minutes' work to remove a tree and treat the stump.

Another was charged £600 just to have his holly bush trimmed.

Stephen Parish, prosecuting, told

Winchester Crown Court, Hants: "They would exploit victims when they sensed vulnerability or old age."

Bowers, 46, from Southampton; Edward Smith, 36, from Newton Abbot, and Maurice Smith, 37, from Basingstoke were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud and damage property over work they carried out at 24 homes across the south-east between 1997 and 2004.

Bowers' wife Margaret, 40, the banker for the operation, was also convicted of conspiracy to defraud. All will be sentenced next month.

WHITE 'N WRONG!

DOUBLE TAKE: Edmond and the CCTV shot of a white driver mistaken for him

Colour-blind court bans black driver

A BLACK driver was convicted for reversing down a motorway, despite CCTV images proving the culprit was WHITE.

Stunned father-of-two Edmond Taylor found himself with a year's ban, even though he had never been near the spot.

But it took a judge only minutes to clear him after studying a giant freeze-frame CCTV shot of the white driver at the moment he was nabbed.

Stolen

Furious judge John Crocker immediately ordered a full investigation into the prosecutors' cock-up and overturned the ban and a £430 fine.

"I think it is totally disgraceful," he said at Guildford Crown Court, Surrey. "Why has this only come to light today?"

"I take it nobody knew that this video existed? I want a full explanation as to how this occurred and I want it within three weeks," he fumed.

The blunder came when police spotted a Vauxhall Corsa reversing along the hard shoulder of the M23 near Redhill, Surrey.

■ by CAMERON MILLAR

The white driver gave his name as Edmond Taylor, and handed over documents – but the car turned out to be stolen.

Meanwhile, the real Edmond had also been stopped during routine checks and it was he who was summoned.

Worried Edmond, 25, of Bermondsey, south London, was warned he would lose his job as a cash handler for a security firm if he was found guilty.

A court convicted him, but he appealed. And when the officer who made the arrest walked into the appeal court, he immediately said: "That's not him – it's a white man."

Edmond's lawyer Ronald Layne said after the case: "To put it quite bluntly, it was a massive cock-up by the Crown Prosecution Service."

A spokesman for the prosecutors said: "We are looking into exactly what happened in this case and will be supplying the judge with a report."

LISA DATE RAPE HELL

Fiends pounce at drug bash

SEXY Lisa Hunter will be brutally raped in Hollyoaks spin-off In The City's most explosive scenes yet.

Lisa (Gemma Atkinson, 22) is attacked by two strangers after overdosing on ecstasy at a celebrity underwear party.

She goes to the showbiz bash to let off steam and strips down to her undies along with the rest of the partygoers.

It's not long before she is necking loads of champagne – and then she pops one too many ecstasy tablets in a stupid effort to get as high as a kite.

Before she knows it, Lisa is led to a private room where she is savagely raped by two men. She is powerless to stop them because of the drugs.

A Hollyoaks insider said: "It is harrowing stuff which will leave fans of the show shocked. When they see Lisa get into trouble they'll be screaming at their TVs."

After Justin Burton (Chris Fountain, 19) discovers which party former hooker Lisa has gone to, he realises she must be in trouble and races round to save her.

Wicked

The source added: "As he storms in he catches the two guys having their wicked way and pulls them off her."

"But he's shocked when he realises she is not breathing."

"Fans will be kept guessing whether she survives or not."

● Hollyoaks: In The City is on E4 on Monday at 9pm.
